The School of Education is committed to teaching leaders who will enrich lives, transform communities and better the world. Together with you, we can provide the best.

No. 1 among public graduate schools of education - Fifth overall, according to U.S. News & World Report’s 2015 Best Graduate Schools rankings.

1st • Curriculum & Instruction
    *No. 1 since 2001

2nd • Administration/Supervision
    • Educational Psychology
    • Elementary Teacher Education

3rd • Education Policy
    • Student Counseling/Personnel Services
    • Secondary Teacher Education

9 new faculty hires in 2014-15 Bringing added expertise to the departments of Art, Counseling Psychology, Curriculum & Instruction, Educational Policy Studies and Kinesiology.

THE ARTS

EDUCATION

HEALTH

EDUCATION STUDENT SNAPSHOT

Undergraduates ................. 1,610
Graduate students .............. 1,089
Special students ............... 7
TOTAL ................................ 2,706

Departments: Art • Curriculum & Instruction • Counseling Psychology • Dance • Educational Leadership & Policy Analysis • Educational Policy Studies • Educational Psychology • Kinesiology • Rehabilitation Psychology & Special Education

DID YOU KNOW?

Theatre & Drama will become the School’s 10th department, starting in the 2015-16 school year.

For 5 consecutive years, students in Kinesiology’s Athletic Training Program have earned a 100 percent pass rate on their board exams.

The Morgridge Center for Public Service in the School coordinates the Badger Volunteers — largest service activity on campus. Over 1,300 students work with more than 100 organizations in the greater Madison area.

THE POWER OF PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT

Gifts of any size make a BIG difference to the faculty, staff and students of the School of Education.

ANNUAL FUND SNAPSHOT

2x Giving to the School of Education has doubled in just two years.

100% The School of Education Board of Visitors achieved a 100 percent Annual Giving rate in 2013.

$389,000 in Annual Fund gifts were matched by Education alumna Tashia Morgridge (BSE ’55) and John Morgridge (BBA ’55) in 2013.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Private support keeps the School of Education accessible to a talented and diverse group of students with financial need.

In 2014-15, the school awarded 233 undergraduate and 56 graduate scholarships & fellowships.